President's Message

Welcome back to the Rochester Knitting Guild! I hope everyone had a wonderful relaxing summer, and maybe even got some new knitting projects started. I'm sure you all have a long list for your fall and winter projects. Anyone started their holiday knitting yet? I haven't. But there's still time...right?

I would like to thank the former Knitting Guild Board. They have done a wonderful job and turned over the reins to our new group. We have a great group of ladies that are working hard to bring a fun new year to our members. Please feel free to approach anyone on the Board with ideas you have for the guild, we'd love to hear from you. The list of new Board members is in every newsletter, and can also be found on the web site.

We have an exciting new year planned. There is a bus trip to the New York Sheep and Wool Festival planned in October, the Melissa Leapman workshops in November, Shop Night will be coming up in December, and lots of surprises for the new year.

I postpone my New Year's resolutions until September because that signals the true beginning of the year for me. I don't have school age children anymore (only one left in college), but I still work under the school schedule. Not to mention that Knitting Guild starts in September, so it signals the beginning of another furious knitting year. My resolution for this year is to work on my Masters Program from the Knitting Guild of America. By putting this in writing, and making myself accountable to all of you, I figure I have a shot at getting it done. So throughout this Knitting year I will update you on my progress. We already have a few people in our guild that are in the middle of the program, and I will be seeking out their guidance on my journey.

Program News

Hello Knitters,

Here is an overview of what we have in store for you this coming year. It sure looks like it's going to be a great year full of wonderful learning opportunities, workshops, show and tell, games, and much more! For the month of September we will focus on some Knitting Olympic games. Get ready for the games and excitement honoring this past Summer Olympic Games in London. In October we will focus on some quick knits for holiday gifting including my favorite, knitted toys! November is the month of Melissa Leap-man. I am excited for the classes and learning some great information that I can add to my arsenal of knitting know how! December is our annual shop night which always is a great time. January will bring in the New Year with some games and another activity TBD. February we will be doing some felting workshops. March we will have a special guest from Periwinkle Sheep Yarn and doing some workshops on dyeing yarn. April is our yarn auction. Finally we will round out the year with our Fashion show in May. I can't wait to see you all in September, see the wonderful knitted treasures you have been working on and hear what you all have been up to during these beautiful summer months.

—Melissa Cushman, Vice President

Clicking around the Web

Welcome Back ~ Summer may not quite be over, but autumn is on its way bringing both back-to-school time and back-to-knitting time! The internet can help combine those times with patterns for knitting almost every school supply you can think of, along with some you may not have thought of. From felted knitted brown bags for lunch (<http://knitty.com/ISSUEwinter06/PATTbrownbag.html>), to pencil cozies (<http://kibbles-n-knits.blogspot.com/2012/08/pencil-cozies-back-to-school-knitter.html>) there is a myriad of possibilities out there! Or take your knitting skills back to school to brush up on the basics or learn something new. There are some good (free) knitting basic videos at <http://www.knittinghelp.com/videos/learn-to-knit> to get you started and a quick search on knitting techniques could keep you online for days.

Member Shop Shout Out

Bead and Fiber Fantasy is a member shop in Marion, NY owned by Louise Smith. She began her journey into the fiber world through raising and loving sheep. She now has added beads to her inventory, and is basically a one-stop shop. She has yarn arranged in her store by weight, roving and top (you needle felters will appreciate that!), spinning machines, and buttons and beads in just about any shape, size and color. Her web site is user-friendly (www.beadandfiberfantasy.com) and a calendar showing the days and hours she is open and when classes are being offered can be found under "Events" on the home page.

Dimity is a member shop that offers internet sales only. Diane Miller will respond to you if you comment on her blog (dianem.wordpress.com), or you can email her at dimity@aol.com. She carries parts for knitting machines, and she also sells yarn in cones. She offers a 10% discount to RKG members (unless the item is already deeply discounted). She is very responsive to email inquiries, and especially if you are a machine knitter, certainly worth chatting with.

I will continue my member shop journey next month. Encourage your friends to support our local yarn shops. We need each other!!

—Pam Knapp, Shop Liaison

Community Knitting

Welcome back all!

At our last meeting in May, Community Knitting held a drawing for those members that donated items during the year. The winners were: Kathleen Iannone and Holly Bauer-Mergen. Congratulations to you both. They each won a gift certificate to a yarn shop of their choice.

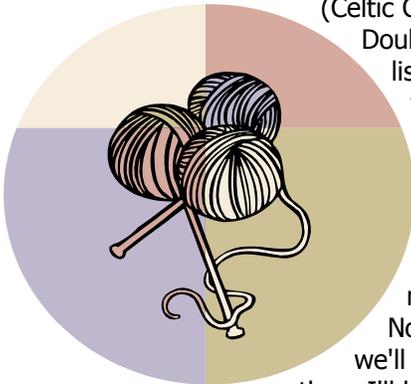

Now that summer is wrapping up and the weather is cooling down, we can get out our needles and begin anew! We are going to be donating to the Mitten and Hat drive again this year. These items will be going to children, so please make sizes to fit young school aged children. Of course, baby items to be donated to Strong are always welcome. Also, Open Door Mission welcomes donations for all ages, baby to adult, and is grateful for intimate use items such as washcloths. Other organizations accepting donations can be found at the RKG website. If you have a particular place in mind for your item, please attach a note that specifies where you would like it to go. If you don't specify, your item will be donated appropriately. Also, remember to sign the form showing that you donated so that you are eligible for the end of the year drawing!

Thank you for your continuing efforts to those in need.

—Elaine Hamilton

Melissa Leapman Workshops

Our Guild is so lucky to have a great designer/author/instructor coming our way in November. And you can be lucky too: just a few spots left in 6 of the 8 workshops (Celtic Cables and 2-Color Double Knitting are waiting list only) Melissa will be teaching for us on November 16-19, 2012. If workshops aren't your thing, you can still catch her at our regular Monday night Guild meeting on November 19th—I'm sure we'll all have fun with her then. I'll be collecting registrations at our September 10th meeting and will have registration forms available. You can also find the form on our webpage at www.rochesterknitting.org if you'd rather fill it out beforehand. See you in September!!

—Tori Reilly

Hospitality

The 2012-13 RKG Board Members welcome you to the 1st meeting of the year by providing snacks. In October we'll resume our suggested snack schedule, as follows:

October snacks provided by members with last names beginning with letters A-J; November, K-P; December—dessert night—everyone brings; January, Q-Z; February, A-J; March K-P; April, Q-Z; May— anyone.

Please remember to bring your own mug. This not only saves the environment from all those foam cups, but also helps the guild financially. Also, please remember that we are privileged to be guests at the home of our host, Temple B'rith Kodesh. No meat products, please.

—Anita Abrahamson

Library

Welcome back, Knitters! Check out our great resources. We have a wonderful choice of technical books, videos, and pattern and design books as well. If you're interested in volunteering for the library this year, either at the library table, or during the book auction, please stop by and see us at the library table. We're looking forward to another great year!

—Marsha Peone, Brenda Mudd

Finger Lakes Fiber Arts Festival

Though humans have been twisting fibers into yarn for millennia, don't assume the spinning stopped when Great-Grandma's wheel got stashed in the attic!! Indeed, crowds of local fiber enthusiasts will converge at this year's Finger Lakes Fiber Arts Festival to celebrate the cutting edge of contemporary fiber arts.

Sponsored annually by the Genesee Valley Handspinners Guild, the 2012 festival is slated for Saturday, September 15 from 10 am to 5 pm and Sunday, September 16 from 10 am to 4 pm at the Hemlock Fairgrounds, located just 25 miles south of Rochester on Route 15A in Livingston County. The Finger Lakes Festival is the largest of its kind west of the Hudson Valley in New York State, drawing almost 3,000 visitors each year.

Featured at the fest are exhibits, workshops, competitions and free demonstrations of the latest trends in the fiber arts, including handspinning, knitting, crocheting, weaving, felting, lacemaking, rug hooking and basket-weaving. Almost 100 vendors will offer supplies and equipment to support all these crafts and more, in addition to freezer lamb, fiber processing, lotions, soaps, and exquisite gifts for every taste!

Local fiber artists will exhibit their very latest handcrafted masterpieces in the festival "Skein and Garment" competition. In-depth workshops for all levels are offered at the festival for knitters, weavers, spinners, dyers, and felters alike; to register, visit GVHG.org/fest.html. Local shepherds will offer their finest wool fleeces and goat fiber for judging and sale.

The family-friendly event features something for everyone, from free horse-drawn wagon rides to daily demonstrations of sheep shearing and working sheepdogs. Or take a break from fiber and enjoy the delectable edibles for sale: refreshing beverages, snacks, and vegetarian fare, as well as heartier choices, including lamb burgers (of course!).

Admission to the Finger Lakes Fiber Arts Festival is $5 per day; children 12 and under are admitted free. Parking is also free; however, NO PETS are permitted anywhere on the fairgrounds, including the parking lot. For further information on the festival, visit www.GVHG.org/fest.html.

SPECIAL NOTE: Admission to the fest is FREE for those willing to offer a couple of hours to volunteer. For further information, please contact Carole Clark at 585-729-2151, or email carolemk@yahoo.com.

RKG Booth at Fiber Festival

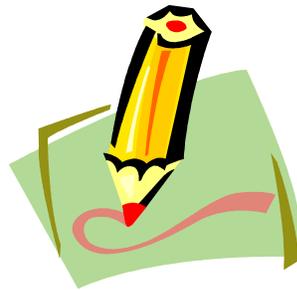

Calling all volunteers!

Are you planning on attending the Finger Lakes Fiber Arts Festival on September 15 and 16(Saturday 10-5; Sunday 10-4)? Once again, RKG will host an information booth at this fabulous local festival held in Hemlock, NY. So many people do not know about RKG or how to knit. Please consider spending some time at the RKG table to share your knowledge. I have some free admission tickets to those of you who get back to me quickly! I am going to be there both days to help out also if you need anything. It is a great time, plus afterwards you can shop around and see some beautiful fiber and maybe travel home with some too! Bring a buddy and talk to others about how wonderful our guild is and have fun too.

—Melissa Cushman

Membership News

Plan ahead to mail your 2012-13 Rochester Knitting Guild membership form & dues to the address at the top of the form on page 6. Doing so would help you avoid waiting on line at the Membership table at the first meeting. Membership is still only $25.00, the best deal around. It gives you access to some of the best teachers in the industry, both local and across the country, and members get a 10% discount at RKG member shops.

As you are filling out the form, please fill out everything as your information may have changed over the past year and we want to make sure that we have your correct information. Also, since this guild is operated entirely by volunteers, we are always in need of help for the various committees. What is your specialty? Greeting members and guests as they come in the door? Taking money for the door prizes? Serving refreshments? Teaching? Helping others with their knitting questions? Please let us know how you can help.

Membership cards can be picked up at the membership table at a meeting. We will not mail out cards unless requested.
