

News for Ewes

October 2021

Our first in-person meeting in almost 2 years will be held on Monday, October 11th at Temple B'rith Kodesh on Elmwood Ave in Brighton! Doors open at 6:30. While we are so excited to see you all in person again, our hosts at Temple B'rith Kodesh have provided the following Covid-19 rules:

- Masks are mandatory at all times, and must be worn properly, covering both your nose and mouth.
- You MUST be vaccinated to enter the Temple. Please be prepared with either your CDC issued vaccine card, or the NY Excelsior App with a current pass on your smartphone. (Passes expire every 6 months but you are allowed to make another in the app by verifying your information again.)
- No food or drink will be allowed in the Temple, as the nature of eating and drinking requires the removal of masks.

Dear members,

Because we will be having a physical meeting at the temple this month, the library will be open for returns. If you think you might have a guild book, but cannot remember what book it is, please contact me via e-mail at librarian@rochesterknitting.org. I will also be calling those who have outstanding books to let them know about the upcoming meeting. Fines will not be collected at this time. We look forward to seeing you this month.

Hello Guilders –

Welcome back! It's the fall, and along with the leaves, things are a changin'! Back in the spring, I mentioned that my husband and I may be moving and that is happening. We are moving to New Hampshire! The move should be finalized by the end of this year, so instead of knitting all the things, my yarn stash is being packed up. Well, not all of it...

This is my final newsletter note as President of the Rochester Knitting Guild. It's been an honor and privilege to be a part of the Guild and I am leaving you all in capable hands. Although all Board spots are not filled, we do have new people moving into key positions to keep things moving until we can be back at full force. Please join me in welcoming

Kat Tronolon: Membership

The outgoing Board members, I included, will be available for assistance and mentoring. We would also LOVE for more help. If you have the availability, please see a Board member to find out where your skills will shine!

Thank you again for making my time as President enjoyable. You will be missed!
