March is a Zoom meeting!

We will be welcoming Kristen Drysdale as a guest speaker via Zoom. Kristen is one of the instructors for our April workshops and is known for her Scandinavian knitting patterns that feature fabulous colorwork. A link to the meeting will be sent to guild members that have paid their dues for the season shortly before the meeting on the 11th.

March Meeting

There are four meetings left in the 2023–24 Guild year. The next two meetings will be Zoom presentations with our workshop instructors. The May meeting will be our annual yarn auction and the Guild elections. Because we've had so many Zoom meetings this year, we've added a June meeting, which will be a picnic, and will give us one more time to knit together in person before the summer break. Full details about all of these will be found elsewhere in this newsletter.

President's Message

The weather this winter has been pretty mild, and we are already experiencing spring temperatures. Has spring sprung for you yet? My mind turns to starting seeds indoors and new things. We will meet via Zoom for both the March and April meetings, with the presentations from our April workshop presenters, Kristin Drysdale and Janette Budge respectively.

It's surprising to me how the simple act of knitting, of playing around with sticks and string, can bring me so many different emotions. On the surface, I am making something that wasn't there before, What a sense of accomplishment I feel when I finish a project. And getting through a difficult pattern? I'm on top of the world! Spring always inspires me to try something new, and I think the upcoming April workshops will be the perfect time for me to try my hand at fair isle, and learn steeking.

Ingrid Lembach
President

Workshops

Save the Dates!! The RKG Spring Workshops featuring Colorwork Around the World are scheduled for April 26, 27 and 28, 2024 via Zoom.

Our Spring Workshop classes will feature colorwork techniques from The Shetlands with Janette Budge and from Scandinavia with Kristin Drysdale, and offer options for introductory level as well as more adventurous level classes

The Shetland classes will include an introduction to Shetland colorwork, making a small Shetland colorwork project, and learning to steek a Shetland project. Janette Budge loves to share her love of Shetland and her Shetland home and heritage. You can read her bio on her website <https://www.janettebudge.com/about/> to get a little more insight into the interesting and lovely charm she brings to her classes.

Kristin Drysdale is a popular designer and instructor, and you can find out more about her on her website <https://scandiwork.com/>. Her classes with our Guild will feature a Scandinavian Slipper class (offered over two days so you'll have time to finish your homework before the second half) and also the class, "Knitting with Three Colors at Once (without dropping yarn, getting tangled or swearing)". It is a fantastic tour through Colorwork around the World without leaving home!

The Workshop registration materials are available on the website and at the end of this newsletter. Please join us for some fun and fascinating classes!

Help Wanted

Ballot Elected office:

Director Position: You will be the liaison between guild members and the board.

(Non Ballot) Chairperson Positions open:

Financial Reviewer: Review the treasurer's books annually.

Shop Liaison: You will be the liaison between guild shop members and the guild. Also runs shop night in November.

Please consider any of these three positions for the next guild season. I look forward to hearing from you. Of course, if you are interested in any of the other positions, just let me know at pastpresident@rochesterknitting.org

Being on the board of this wonderful guild is something special. Thanks much and I look forward to hearing from you.

Margaret Mullen
Past president

Looking to the future

The Guild needs help to revise our by-laws and we need some nonboard members to accomplish this short-term project.

Why should I care? The Guild needs by-laws to exist and legally maintain our bank accounts. Furthermore, the by-laws have not evolved with the Guild and ours woefully out of date since they are over 30 years old with few updates.

The goal is to have this project finished by the end of the calendar year so that procedures for a membership vote may start in early 2025. If you are interested in helping with this project contact our president Ingrid Lembach at president@rochesterknitting.org

News from Our Member Shops

Once again, some of our member shops have some great events planned for March. Please be sure to follow the links for all the details you need about the events.

Stop into Lift Bridge Yarns on Saturday, March 16th to try your luck at our St. Patrick's Day Event! Everyone who stops in to shop gets to pick a coin out of our pot of gold, and everyone's a winner! Get fun prizes or 10%, 20%, 30%, even 50% off your entire purchase!

Lift Bridge Yarns also has some great classes & eclipse-themed KAL & CALs coming up. Check out <https://www.liftbridgeyarns.com/pages/classes> for a full listing!

Little Button: We'll be continuing our weekly Fiber Night Wednesdays from 6–8pm. We are also hosting the Knit for Food knitathon on March 23rd. It's a 12-hour knitathon in which we are looking for sponsors for our team - "Little Button, Big Feelings" Here is a link to the event: <https://givebutter.com/knitforfood24> Anyone is welcome to join us that day for the knitathon. Please spread the word and consider sponsoring their team for this worthwhile cause! No need to be there for the 12 hours, you can join us any time that day.

With nicer weather and longer days in the near future for us, it may be a great time to get out and visit some of our member shops. We do have a complete and up-dated listing of all the member shops on the Guild's website at <https://rochesterknitting.org/shops/>. Please

Thank you,
Carol Kolb
Shop Liaison

Yarn Auction

Donations for the RKG Yarn Auction at our regular meeting on May 13 will be accepted up to May 1! Feel free to bring your donations to the Webster Public Library, 980 Ridge Rd in Webster (Hard Rd exit from Rte 104) and leave them at the Reference Desk. Please be sure your donations are labeled as being for the RKG Yarn Auction.

On the evening of May 13, all these delectable yarns will have been sorted into bagged lots. Just as at our recent book auction, bidders will simply write their name and the price (in whole dollar amounts) they are willing to bid on a sheet of paper labeled with that lot number. Others who wish to bid on the same lot can add their names to the bidding sheet, raising the number by $1 increments.

When the end of the auction period is announced during the evening, winners may collect their bidding sheets and yarn and cash out. The Guild accepts cash, check, and Venmo. (Those interested in assisting with sorting, set-up, and/or cashiering are invited to contact me at auction@rochesterknitting.org.)

Be sure to take time to browse through your own cupboards before May 1, looking for treasures to share with others! Your donations directly benefit our knitting guild and the programs we are able to offer. You may also discover you needed to make space to bring home other treasures on May 13!!

Auction Chair*

Library

Special thanks to everyone who participated in last month's book silent auction, whether by sorting books, processing payments or bidding. The Guild received $130, all the books found new homes, and many of our Guild members took home new sources of inspiration. The silent auction format worked well and it was fun to see some spirited bidding.

Among the donated books were also a number of manufacturer pattern brochures. We're considering several possible ways to make these available to members. May will be the next (and also last) meeting at the Temple before our summer break. Be thinking ahead to what types of our library books you'd like to take home with you.

A big, big welcome to our new Co-Librarian Candace Wells. Thank you, Candace for stepping forward to support our guild.

Community Service

Happy March to all! Even though our March and April meetings are via Zoom, I am still interested in collecting any items you have ready to donate. Please reach out to me at communityservice@rochesterknitting.org and we can coordinate a place and time to meet. I'm also happy to meet and collect any yarn for the May yarn auction on Marcia's behalf. Not able to meet between meetings - no problem. Just save those finished items for the May meeting and I can collect them then. And a big thanks to all the guild members who have already donated item this year!

Tips from the Help Table

Taming your Tails

How many times have you accidentally knit a row with a tail from your cast-on? I've done it enough times to make a habit of tying that long (and sometimes not so long) tail in a knot before I start stitching. If you need that long tail for seaming later, you'll want to make sure that it doesn't get tangled or frayed, too.

I folded the left tail in quarters, then tied it in a knot. On the right side, I folded it in thirds. You'll figure out what works best for you based on the length of the tail.

It's an easy, practical habit to develop. You might not even notice if it helps you, but you will notice when you're tinkering because that long tail was untamed.

Help Table*

February Followup

Two items drew a lot of attention during Show and Tell at our February meeting. Here's more information

Gaming Pillows

After Nancy shared her success with using a gaming pillow to support her arms while knitting, I decided to do a bit of research. Many people have found relief from their stitching-related aches and pains when using a gaming pillow but I was left wondering why I should use a gaming pillow instead of a much less expensive nursing or throw pillows. The answer is that it comes down to size, firmness, and features: For example a nursing pillow will be softer and c shaped because it's all about supporting a baby whereas a gaming pillow such as the Valeri that was shown at our February meeting will be firmer and have features like a buckle to keep it in place. While there are lots of options available for both nursing and gaming pillows if this is something you would like to pursue, keep in mind nothing beats practicing good ergonomics for knitting. Before you invest in one of these options make sure you choose something that fits you.

Scrap basket

Pat's crocheted scrap basket was a hit at show and tell, to create this beauty, she held 4 strands of worsted weight yarn together and used a large hook. The pattern can be found here used <https://mypoppet.com.au/makes/crochet-basket-scrap-yarn-projects/> or here <https://www.ravelry.com/patterns/library/scrap-yarn-basket>

There are many similar patterns available so take some time to find the one that fits you and your scraps best.

ROCHESTER KNITTING GUILD

Fiscal Review Report

The report covers the fiscal year July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023. All income sources and expenses were reviewed: monthly bank statements, the checkbook register, receipts, invoices, and supporting documentation.

GENERAL

All income is through check, cash and Venmo. All guild payments are made by check after relevant documents were submitted. Discrepancies found during the review were resolved by discussing issues with the Treasurer and the retreat and workshop coordinators.

Membership Dues:

Some payments were difficult to identify for membership dues, especially when payments were made in cash and a member made payment for other members with one check.

Recommendation: Need a way to track cash/check membership payments back to member with date of payment. Writing a receipt for each payment would provide tracking.

Guest Artist Workshop Payments:

Bank slips matched deposits against individual payments. One discrepancy of $35 occurred on the roster which was resolved with workshop coordinator by confirming an attendee's number of classes and sending an updated roster.

Spring Retreat Payments:

Some confusion arose regarding payments for multiple attendees, made by one person, without noting the other attendee's names. All attendees should be noted on the check or Venmo payment.

In three cases payments were made in December and deposited in April. One payment was in cash to the retreat coordinator in December then submitted through coordinator's Venmo in April.

Recommendation: It would be helpful for payments deposited sooner.

Petty Cash Monies:

$100 was held in the account and used to make change for raffle tickets at in-person meetings. Any money used was restored to Petty Cash at the conclusion of the meeting. Money taken in from raffle tickets is accounted for using raffle ticket starting and ending numbers and documented on a deposit slip and recorded Monthly Expense Spreadsheet.

Spreadsheet:

Some items were inadvertently omitted from the spreadsheet. After creating another spreadsheet from bank statements the omissions were found.

Recommendation: Double check to make sure everything is included on the spreadsheet.

RKG SPRING WORKSHOPS
The World of Colorwork
Shetland - Janette Budge
Scandinavian - Kristin Drysdale
April 26, 27 & 28, 2024
via Zoom

Friday, April 26, 2024, 9:00-Noon EDST

CLASS: INTRODUCTION TO FAIR ISLE - JANETTE BUDGE

Have fun learning how to knit Fair Isle. We will cover ways to attach new colours, how to carry your yarn at the back (floats), achieve an even tension and tips on colour choice and patterns. Knitting in the round is optional, the project can be knit flat.

Skills required: Students must be able to do basic knit stitches.

Homework: No homework required.

Supplies: The project rows are only 42 sts over 21 rows so a few yards of each colour is all that is required. You can choose to knit in only 2 colours if you wish. Otherwise, 4 colours are needed in total. Fingering weight or 4ply equivalent yarn is best on needle size US 2-3 depending on whether you are a tight or loose knitter. You can use 4-5 DPNs if working in the round or 2 circular needles (1 circular doesn't work well with such few stitches) The project can also be knit flat, back and forth.

Friday, April 26, 2024, 1:30 - 3:00 pm EDST

CLASS: SCANDI SLIPPER CLASS Part 1 - KRISTIN DRYSDALE

This class teaches you everything you need to know about colorwork in a nutshell. You will be provided with a coupon code to purchase a slipper pattern after registration; Kristin will provide suggestions as to which slipper patterns will work best for you). This is an intensive colorwork class. Knitters will learn how to knit and purl with two colors at once by holding the yarn in one hand or in two hands. You will learn how and when and why to catch floats. Learn to read charts. How to decrease in colorwork, and my favorite longtail cast on, and how to join seamlessly in the round. You will improve your DPN/flexiflip skills. We learn about gauge and sizing. And learn how to do a Norwegian braid to finish off the slippers. After making these slippers, you will have the colorwork skills to knit anything you want in colorwork.

Skills required: Intermediate. If you are an enthusiastic beginner and you know how to knit and purl with confidence, you can take this class.

For Class 1: We will start the slipper and you'll be asked to complete it to a certain point before Class 2.

Homework: Bring your selected Slipper pattern

Supplies:

- Gauge-size DPNs or Flexiflips. Suggested needle size: US 4/3.5
- Brown Sheep Prairie Spun DK yarn or comparable in two contrasting colors
- Scissors, the usual knitting supplies

Saturday- April 27, 2024, 9 am-Noon EDST

CLASS: FAIR ISLE GIFT BAG - JANETTE BUDGE

Have fun learning how to knit Fair Isle. We will cover ways to attach new colours, different ways you can hold your yarns, how to carry your yarn at the back (floats), achieve an even tension and tips on colour choice and patterns. This project is knit in the round. I will give you techniques on how to get the look you are after, whether you want a more subtle look, traditional or bold and bright.

Skills required: Participants must be able to knit with 2 colours in the round.

Homework: Before class cast on 88 stitches using 2ply jumper weight or 4ply yarn and knit 8 rows circular (do not cast off). This creates the base of the bag. Jamiesons of Shetland Spindrift or Jamieson and Smith jumper weight is ideal or something similar.

Supplies:

- 4-5 DPNs or circular needle suitable for 88 – 96 sts in size 3 –3.5mm.
- Between 2 and 10 colours of Shetland jumper weight 2ply (or other woolly 4ply equivalent/fingering weight yarn) You can choose how much you want to challenge yourself with colour changes. (To knit it exactly as the bag in the centre of the photo in blues you will need 5 motif colours and 2 background colours. One of the motif colours is also the top and bottom of the bag.) You need approximately 1.5yards per fair isle row of either background or motif yarn. There are 31 fair isle rows in the chart. In addition, you will need around 60 yards for the base and top of the bag combined. This is a chance for you to play with colours in fair isle so bring as many colours as you have in your stash as you may change your mind as we discuss ways to choose yarn colours in the class.

Saturday- April 27, 2024, 1:30 - 4:30 pm EDST

CLASS: KNITTING WITH THREE COLORS AT ONCE (without dropping yarn, getting tangled or swearing) - KRISTIN DRYSDALE

This class will teach you how to knit with three colors at once with ease. Knitting with three colors is a bit like a dance, you will learn to weave colors in and out, catching floats where you need to and you can do it all without getting your colors all twisted up. For this class you will be making the Astrid Cozy (cowl). You will receive the pattern or code after registration.

In this class we will cover: Latvian Braid, Knitting with the right hand, Knitting with the left hand, Knitting with two colors in your left hand, Catching floats with the main color, Catching floats with the contrasting colors, Catching floats with two contrasting colors, Chart reading, Colorwork tips and tricks, Weaving in and out new colors, Picking up and knitting stitches, Mattress Stitch.

Skills required: Advanced Skills required are basic knit, purl, cast on, and bind off, as well as the ability to work various colorwork, cable, and lace techniques, increases, decreases, knit in the round (dpns and circulars), read charts, and use advanced shaping methods such as short rows.

Homework: Cast on stitches as per pattern.

Supplies:

- Four colors of sport weight yarn, approx 392yds total (Details will be emailed after registration.)
- Needles: US5 (3.75 mm) 24" circular (or size needed to obtain gauge)
- Stitch markers
- Tapestry needle
- Scissors

Sunday, April 28, 2024, 9 am-Noon EDST

CLASS: STEEKING FAIR ISLE - JANETTE BUDGE

Have you always wondered about steeking? When is it used? Why is it used? In this 3 hour class Janette will take the fear out of cutting your knitting. Used when knitting in the round especially for fair isle or colorwork knitting where an opening is required like an armhole or neck hole. She will demonstrate 2 ways to reinforce your steek, for you to follow along with during the class and talk about 2 others. Janette will show you how best to pick up stitches for a rib or button band in your steeked project.

Skills required: Knitting homework is required for this class and a general understanding of stranded or fair isle knitting is beneficial. Must be able to knit in the round.

Homework: You will need to knit a small cuff BEFORE the class so that you can practice steeking on your sample. A handout will be sent prior to the class on knitting the full sample for cutting during the class. Sample is 21 rows long and 52 stitches in the round.

Supplies:

- Either 4-5 short DPNS or circulars in size 3mm or 3.5mm suitable for small circumference knitting.
- Scissors, a small crochet hook and a Tapestry needle is also required.
- Yarn to knit the sample, can either be 2, 3 or 4 colours depending on what you have to hand. Only a few yards of each colour is needed of fingering weight or 4 ply equivalent yarn. Best if it is a woolly wool but not essential.
- A handout will be sent prior to the class on knitting the full sample for cutting during the class. Sample is 21 rows long and 52 stitches in the round.

Sunday - April 28, 2024 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm EST
