Helical Knitting

Helix def. 1. Something spiral in form, such as a spring or coil.

Think about a Slinky...remember that coil of flattened wire that could do amazing things? Well, in October, we'll be playing around with Helix or Helical Knitting in both garter stitch and stocking stitch. Helical knitting is terrific for knitting garter stitch in the round without that little hiccup where the end of the rounds meet. Stocking stitch helix stripes are fun, easy, and a great way to use up little bits of left-over yarns.

President's Message

Hello Guilders—

Fall is in full swing and it's FINALLY sweater weather! I have been knitting shawls all summer but have been planning my cooler weather knitting all along. I rearranged my Ravelry queue and pushed three sweaters to the top. They are Easel, Shellseeker, and the Rose Cardigan. I think I'm going to knit them in this order. That is until I see a new "something" that I have to KNIT RIGHT NOW. If you want to see what I'm knitting and/or planning, find me on Ravelry as "evilprincess275."

How do you plan your knitting projects? Do you change your focus with the seasons or weather? I would love to hear about what you'll be knitting next so don't be surprised if I stop you at a meeting to ask "what are you working on?"

Happy Knitting!

—Sarah Shepard, President

Community Knitting

Cold weather is fast approaching and many vulnerable communities need our help. This fall we are focusing on senior citizens, children, and veterans that need gear to keep them warm. Hats, scarves, mittens, and blankets are needed across the area. If you know of a group that could use our help, contact me.

Veteran's Day

All items donated at our November meeting will be donated to veterans' organizations in honor of our meeting falling on Veterans' Day. I have been informed that this group prefers darker colors, however, if you don't have time to make something and have room in your budget please consider donating something from the list I have compiled from the VA hospital and Veterans Outreach Center web sites.

May your tension be consistent,

—Natalie Klein

Library

Donations of books, videos, patterns, etc. are always welcome. So, if you have a book or two, or any other knitting/crochet items, that you no longer use, bring them to a meeting and they will either be added to the library or reserved for the book auction in the spring. We are also interested in any old needles, crochet hooks, ball winders, or other equipment that may be looking for a new home, as we are interested in having tools that members may either check out or use at meetings.

Thank you all. And have a happy and safe season this year.

Your librarians,

—Barbara Gay & Lelanda Covill

Rochester Knitting Guild welcomes

Lorilee Beltman

Four Days of Workshops: April 17, 18, 19, 20, 2020

The Rochester Knitting Guild is delighted to welcome Lorilee Beltman for our Spring 2020 Workshops (please note the corrected dates—the Sept Newsletter was incorrect). Lorilee happily sees no end to where knitting curiosity can take you, so she loves to help knitters make new discoveries. For the past ten years she has enjoyed her students at over one hundred national events, and she looks forward to meeting you in class! Lorilee is patient with every student and packs her classes with content and lots of extra tips you can really use.

Her articles and designs have been published in books, magazines, and online mags. She is a 2018 Knit Star teacher, the former techniques columnist at Knitty, and an online instructor at Interweave and at Craftsy where her classes are consistent best-sellers. Cheri Switzer and Cindy Proano took several classes with Lorilee last spring and think that our members will really enjoy not only Lorilee's low key teaching style but also her interesting approaches to tried and true techniques!

One of Lorilee's most popular classes is "The Cast On That's Pure Magic". Estonians have been using it since the 1970s. Americans were turned on to it when Judy Becker taught us via Knitty in 2006. If you haven't learned it yet, here's a perfect opportunity to learn and apply the Magic Cast-On. What's exciting is all the possibilities it offers to knitters! We will learn it, then work our way through ways to apply it.

Symmetrical lace scarves? You don't have to use and pick out waste yarn. Shawls that start with a garter-stitch tab? You don't have to pick up stitches on that icky cast-on edge. Toe-up socks? You don't have to tighten up loose stitches from Turkish or figure-8 cast-on, plus we will learn a common wedge-toe and a rounded-toe version. Infinity loop cowls? You don't have to pick out the waste yarn of a provisional cast-on. Hems? You don't have to sew down, and you don't have to pick up bumps of a long-tail cast-on and wonder if you're in the right column. This is general knitting knowledge you will apply to many areas of your knitting life. Lorilee can work with conventional knitters, mirror-image left-hand knitters, and combination knitters in a way that suits you.

Registration forms are available in this newsletter and at www.rochesterknitting.org. Registrations will begin at the Guild's meeting on October 28, 2019. Any mailed registrations will be opened after October 28.

The Cast On That's Pure Magic

Friday-April 17, 2020, 9am – Noon

Experience: Students must have experience with knit and purl and like trying new things.

Description: Estonians have been using it since the 1970s. Americans were turned on to it when Judy Becker taught us via Knitty in 2006. If you haven't learned it yet, here's a perfect opportunity to learn and apply the Magic Cast-On. What's exciting is all the possibilities it offers to knitters! We will learn it, then work our way through ways to apply it.

Symmetrical lace scarves? You don't have to use and pick out waste yarn. Shawls that start with a garter-stitch tab? You don't have to pick up stitches on that icky cast-on edge. Toe-up socks? You don't have to tighten up loose stitches from Turkish or figure-8 cast-on, plus we will learn a common wedge-toe and a rounded-toe version. Infinity loop cowls? You don't have to pick out the waste yarn of a provisional cast-on. Hems? You don't have to sew down, and you don't have to pick up bumps of a long-tail cast-on and wonder if you're in the right column. This is general knitting knowledge you will apply to many areas of your knitting life.

Lorilee can work with conventional knitters, mirror-image left-hand knitters, and combination knitters in a way that suits you.

Colorful Cast Ons

Friday-April 17, 2020, 1:30 - 4:30 pm

Experience: All levels are welcome in this class.

Description: When starting a project do you feel you're not getting to the fun part until well after the cast on? Try these colorful cast-ons to add interest to your project, and to add extra entertainment value for you, the knitter. You'll be able to apply the techniques learned to add a modern touch of color to your next garment. Or, by adding colors to the cast-on edge, you can introduce colors that appear later in the piece. The options are so plentiful that there is more in the handout than we have time to try, but we'll choose our favorites and proceed at a good clip. Although the class moves along, the pace is relaxed because we make small swatches. You can even skip one once in a while if you need a rest. Many are easy, but some are advanced. The teacher hopes to bring the beginners along on the advanced exercises!

Colors that Climb (6 hour class)

Saturday-April 18, 2019: 9 am-Noon + 1:30 - 4:30 pm (6 hour class with lunch break)

Experience: Intermediate

Description: Explore various ways that color can be added when contrast stitches climb vertically from round to round. These techniques do not inhibit the elasticity of the fabric. We'll play with simple zigs and zags, colorful cables, lines between lace, and purl-only columns that look like caterpillars. We'll explore its sketchy history; it is used in Rovaniemi knitting, as a substitute for duplicate stitch in argyle, and it even appears in a Japanese stitch dictionary. After class, apply the coloring techniques to existing patterns worked in the round.

Pick Your Knits & Purls—Continental Knitting

Sunday-April 19 2020, 9am – Noon

Experience: This class is suited for knitters with 0-50 years experience.

Description: When you learn Lorilee's brand of continental knitting, you will minimize your hand motions for a more comfortable, and perhaps speedier, way to knit. Each finger has a job to do. Understand exactly what motions have a bearing on stitch gauge (it's not what you think!). Learn to create even knitting by sizing your knits and purls equally. Learn how your choice of tools affects your outcome. Practice the knit stitch then move on to purl and ribbing where efficiency really pays off.

Fitting Socks for Ample Ankles

Sunday- April 19 2020, 1:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Experience: Students must be comfortable with cast on, knit and purl. Students must have some sock-knitting experience and be comfortable working with fingering weight yarn.

Description: Don't be left out of the fun of knitting your own socks simply because your ankles and calves (or those you knit for) are more ample than average. In class, we will discuss a few easy-to-apply strategies for customizing your own "plain vanilla" sock recipe, with specific features designed to improve your comfort. Continue in class applying the strategies to your homework with the goal of making a complete ankle section of the sock which may be finished after class and saved as a personal template. Does your ankle measure between 10 and 14 inches or more? You'll fit right in!

Totally Tubular

Monday – April 20, 2020, 9am – Noon

Experience: For the advanced-beginner to intermediate knitter. Students should know how to cast on, bind off, knit, and purl, and should have completed several projects.

Description: For crisp, professional edges on your knitted ribbing, tubular is the way to go. Students will learn and practice a tubular cast-on for both k1 x p1 and k2 x p2 ribbing. We will learn the method that requires no waste yarn nor crochet hook. On our swatches, we then learn and practice the tubular bind-off for each, so that our sweater beginnings and endings can look fabulous and match nearly exactly.

Cabling Without a Cable Needle

Monday– April 20, 2020, 1:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Experience: Students should be comfortable knitting, purling and following pattern directions, but prior experience with cables is not necessary.

Description: Do you love gorgeous cable knits? Do you find that working cables slows you down a lot? Even if you are new to cable knitting, this class is for you. We will learn how to cross those cables in various configurations without the assistance of a cable needle. Once you learn this technique you can cut out that step where you have to look up the text translation of the charted symbol. Imagine cabling without glancing over at the words to get them done! You may even encounter fewer errors as you work.

A tidy appearance is important, too. Have you noticed, in your ribbing and cables that the left-most knit stitch looks sloppy? Are you familiar with the term "man-spreading"? Well, this stitch looks like it has taken its seat and done just that. We will learn why it happens and then teach that stitch some manners! Class also includes tips for keeping track of when it's time for that cabling action row.

Note: Student should be comfortable knitting, purling and following pattern directions, but prior experience with cables is not necessary. Do you love gorgeous cable knits? Do you find that working cables slows you down a lot? Even if you are new to cable knitting, this class is for you. We will learn how to cross those cables in various configurations without the assistance of a cable needle.
